Grub-Gobbling Geckos is a breezy, rules-light game for all ages. Players take the role of hungry geckos on the hunt for caches of grubs. Each player secretly chooses locations to visit by coloring in the gecko images on their player cards, but if they visit the same location as the competition, neither gecko will be able to eat in peace! Players must avoid getting into squabbles with the other geckos while slipping past the dangers of the outdoors each round to claim their grub and a powerful morph card! Be the first to fill your belly and then find a place to sleep to win the game!
